TERMS & CONDITIONS

- This quotation is based upon the quantity as shown on reverse side of this quotation. Any decrease in quantity ordered to quantity quoted will affect the unit price of this quotation.
- NO CANCELLATIONS are acceptable after submission of your order to Product Dynamics.
- This quotation is valid until the order deadline date corresponding to the customer nominated delivery date. (Please refer to dates shown on reverse side). Product Dynamics reserves the right to amend this quotation should orders be received AFTER this date.
- All artwork designed by us remain the property of Product Dynamics and are copyright. Clients will supply artwork for editing purposes only and via hardcopy or our online marking system ProofHQ.
- Prices do not include the cost to re-draw, amend or enhance poor quality logos supplied by clients, nor do they include complicated graphics designs. Location maps (if supplied by the client for redrawing/reproduction) must be supplied in a clear, legible format. Changes to artwork and text at final proof stage will incur authors alterations charges.
- Freight: Unless otherwise instructed, Product Dynamics will ship orders via our contracted freight company, whose rates have been negotiated at very competitive levels. The client agrees to pay such costs. Where a delivery is made and additional "waiting time" OR "fuel levy" is charged, the client agrees to pay such additional cost.
- Product Dynamics does NOT require clients to pay a deposit. However, our terms of trading are NETT 7 DAYS from receipt of invoice.
- Product Dynamics undertakes to ensure that the invoice value matches the quotation value. In circumstances where quantity and/or specifications change and the quoted price alters, clients will be advised prior to any work taking place. Author's alterations charges (an unknown factor at time of quotation) will be charged as additional cost.
